Letter No MC4 48/42/43 Dy 23-3-44 from the President of Municipal Council, Mysore requesting that the increments due to one M. Sadasivaiah may be withheld

1) Mr Sadasivaiah is an official of the Mysore city who is drawing a pay of Rs 27 p m in Grade 25-1-40 As he has not passed the Local Boards Examn his increments were withheld He has passed the examn in Dec 1942

2) According to the increment roll put up, it is seen that he should get 33 from 1-3-44

MC 126-41-6 on the subject is put up

7) 2 I Sadasiviah was entertained as a permanent clerk in the Revised scale of 25-1-40 on 1-3-36 He was granted increments reaching the stage of Rs 27/- on 1-3-1938 Further increments were not sanctioned for his now having passed the Municipal and District Board Examination, which was made obligatory in G O dated 18-4-34 in respect of all officials working in the Local Bodies

8) 3 But subsequently, all such officials who had not passed the examination were allowed 2 years' time from 10-3-42 to pass the same as per G O No L 8181-203/M1 126-41-4 dated 10-3-42 and it was further ordered that the increments that would accrue to them in the interval might be sanctioned In accordance with this G O , the increments that had been withheld, could have been sanctioned, which were, however, not sanctioned due probably to an incorrect interpretation of the G O The official, in the meanwhile, passed the examination held in December 1942

9) 4 There is no objection for the official being granted all the increments from the respective dates in which they accrued as detailed in the Increment certificate The official gets Rs 33/- from 1-3-1944 after the increments are sanctioned
